COURT RULES HOWISON OUT; JUSTAINS SCHLEY

M'KINLEY IS FATIGUED.

Solids Did Not Especially Agree with Him and Pulse Increased 6, but Doctors Say that Should Cause No Alarm.

Latest News from the President—When the afternoon consultation was over the doctors announced that the condition of their patient continued favorable.

His only complaint is of fatigue. He continues to take a sufficient amount of food. Pulse, 126; temperature, 100.2 degrees.

Dr. McBurney was so satisfied with the President's condition that he left Buffalo for this city this afternoon. He says Mr. McKinley will soon be able to sit up.

PRESIDENT'S RESTLESSNESS DUE TO EATING FOOD.

BUFFALO, Sept. 12.—The afternoon consultation of the President's physicians was brief, lasting hardly an hour. Dr. Park stated that the patient continued to do well. The quantity of beef extract administered to him, he said, had been doubled. The President was now receiving a full ounce every hour.

Dr. Mynter, referring to the rise in his pulse to 126, an increase of two since morning, told the newspaper men that the solid food given the President this morning had not especially agreed with him.

The President, he said, had also been slightly restless, but that was to be expected.

EMMA GOLDMAN WITH CZOLGOSZ.

New Witness Says He Saw Her and the President's Assailant Confering in Beer Garden.

(Special to The Evening World.)
CHICAGO, Sept. 12.—Despite the repeated declaration of Emma Goldman that she only met Czolgosz casually as she was departing for Rochester on Aug. 12, it is reported to-day that the police have evidence to show that she was with the President's assailant in Chicago after that date.

If this man speaks the truth Miss Goldman was in Chicago and saw Czolgosz here at the very time she alleges she was visiting in Rochester, Pittsburg and Buffalo.

Would Nurse President. Emma Goldman to-day announced that she was ready and willing to nurse President McKinley "back to life." She has had considerable experience as a trained nurse.

The Evening World correspondent called on her in the Harrison street annex and found her in consultation with her attorney, John F. Geeting. "Now, tell me, did you offer to nurse President McKinley, as some of your friends say?" she was asked. Instantly a light leaped to the anarchist leader's eyes. Standing erect she said:

"Nurse him I will; I will nurse him as tenderly as a laboring woman nurses her child. I can do it and I will."

Tenderness in Her Breast. "I would be glad to show the world that tenderness can be in the breast of those who believe in freedom. Send me and he will have the care that money could not buy."

Her face was aglow. Suddenly she calmed down. "Pshaw, they wouldn't let me," she said. "Yet who could do it better than I, who am trained for it?"

Direct to Exposition Grounds. Trolley cars from Lackawanna's Buffalo depot run direct to Exposition grounds, passing all principal hotels.

WOMAN ROBS A HOUSE IN BROADWAY

Chief of Police Foley, of Mount Vernon, and his men are searching for a woman burglar who in broad daylight entered the home of William G. Bussey, of Claremont avenue, between East 84th and East 86th streets, to-day and carried away about $1,000 worth of jewelry, silverware and linen.

The burglar broke the lattice work under the front stairs, forced open a cellar window, and then pried open an inner door. Neighbors have furnished the police with a good description of the woman.

Mr. Bussey is a well-known lawyer and is on his way home from San Francisco. Mrs. Bussey is spending a six weeks' vacation in Boston.

From what the police have been able to learn, the woman forced her way into the house at about 11 o'clock this morning. Mrs. Hayes, a neighbor, who lives on the opposite corner, saw the woman walking about the Bussey house shortly before the burglary was committed. The woman, who was stylishly dressed, appeared to be looking at the flowers.

Suddenly she disappeared, and about an hour later was seen walking down Claremont avenue, carrying two large bundles. One was covered by a pink bath mat, which had been taken from the Bussey home. The woman, who is undoubtedly a New York criminal, ran down the street, and was seen carefully putting away, and also found some very valuable jewelry, which had been laid aside for the summer months in bureau drawers.

AUTOS IN RAIN STORM AT ONEIDA.

ONEIDA, N. Y., Sept. 12.—Through driving downpour of rain fifty-six contestants in the 500 mile automobile endurance test between New York and Buffalo left Oneida before the close of the Central at 10 o'clock for Oneida, the scene of the noon control. The roads were very heavy. There were two mishaps during the morning due to trouble with the steering gears. C. R. Granger operating a nine-horse-power gasoline machine, crashed into a fence guarding a fifty-foot embankment and tore away part of the fence. A team rescued the machine and he continued. John M. Salterfield's machine broke down and he had to abandon the trip. First to arrive in Oneida was David Wolf Darnop. F. A. Low was second and C. Arthur Benjamin was third.

ANOTHER POLICEMAN RESIGNS.

Timothy J. O'Leary, a policeman attached to the Oak street station, resigned today from the police force. O'Leary was to have been tried to-day on a charge of being absent without leave for one day. When the case was called it was announced that he had resigned. O'Leary's record is good.

POLO GROUNDS, Sept. 12.—Disappointment seems to be the poor Giants' lot these days. After figuring how they were going to wallop the ball players from Cincinnati twice to-day and putting out of last place rain comes along and upsets their plans. So it was that but one game was played to-day, and the best the New Yorkers could hope for was to reduce the Heines' lead.

There wasn't any certainty that even the second part of the day's programme would be carried out. Rain clouds hung close to earth as if they'd weep at any minute. The players wallowed about in a field that was soggy and heavy, and there were some excuses for misplays. Nobody would expect a crowd considering all things.

The run peeped out just as the game began. Davis finished Bay's homer, scoring Crawford. Van got the flies of Magoon and Bergen. Two runs.

WON'T EXTRADITE EMMA GOLDMAN.

(Special to The Evening World.)
BUFFALO, Sept. 12.—District Attorney Penney and Sup. Bull have just issued a statement that requisition papers for Emma Goldman have not been issued and none are likely to be. "What is the cause of the delay?" Mr. Penney was asked.

"The evidence connecting the Goldman woman with the shooting or with a plot against the President is insufficient upon which to base application for requisition papers," replied the District Attorney.

"Do you expect to get further evidence?"

"As to that I cannot say."

"Does this mean that the efforts of the police to prove that there was an anarchist plot against the President has fallen through?"

"I am not prepared to discuss that matter at present."

FOREIGN PRAISE FOR THE DOCTORS.

LONDON, Sept. 12.—The Lancet warmly praises the thorough hospital arrangements at Buffalo. It says: "Considering the nature of the injury, the President doubtless owed his life to the perfect emergency equipment of the Exposition, which is characteristic of American thoroughness, and was made for use and not for show."
